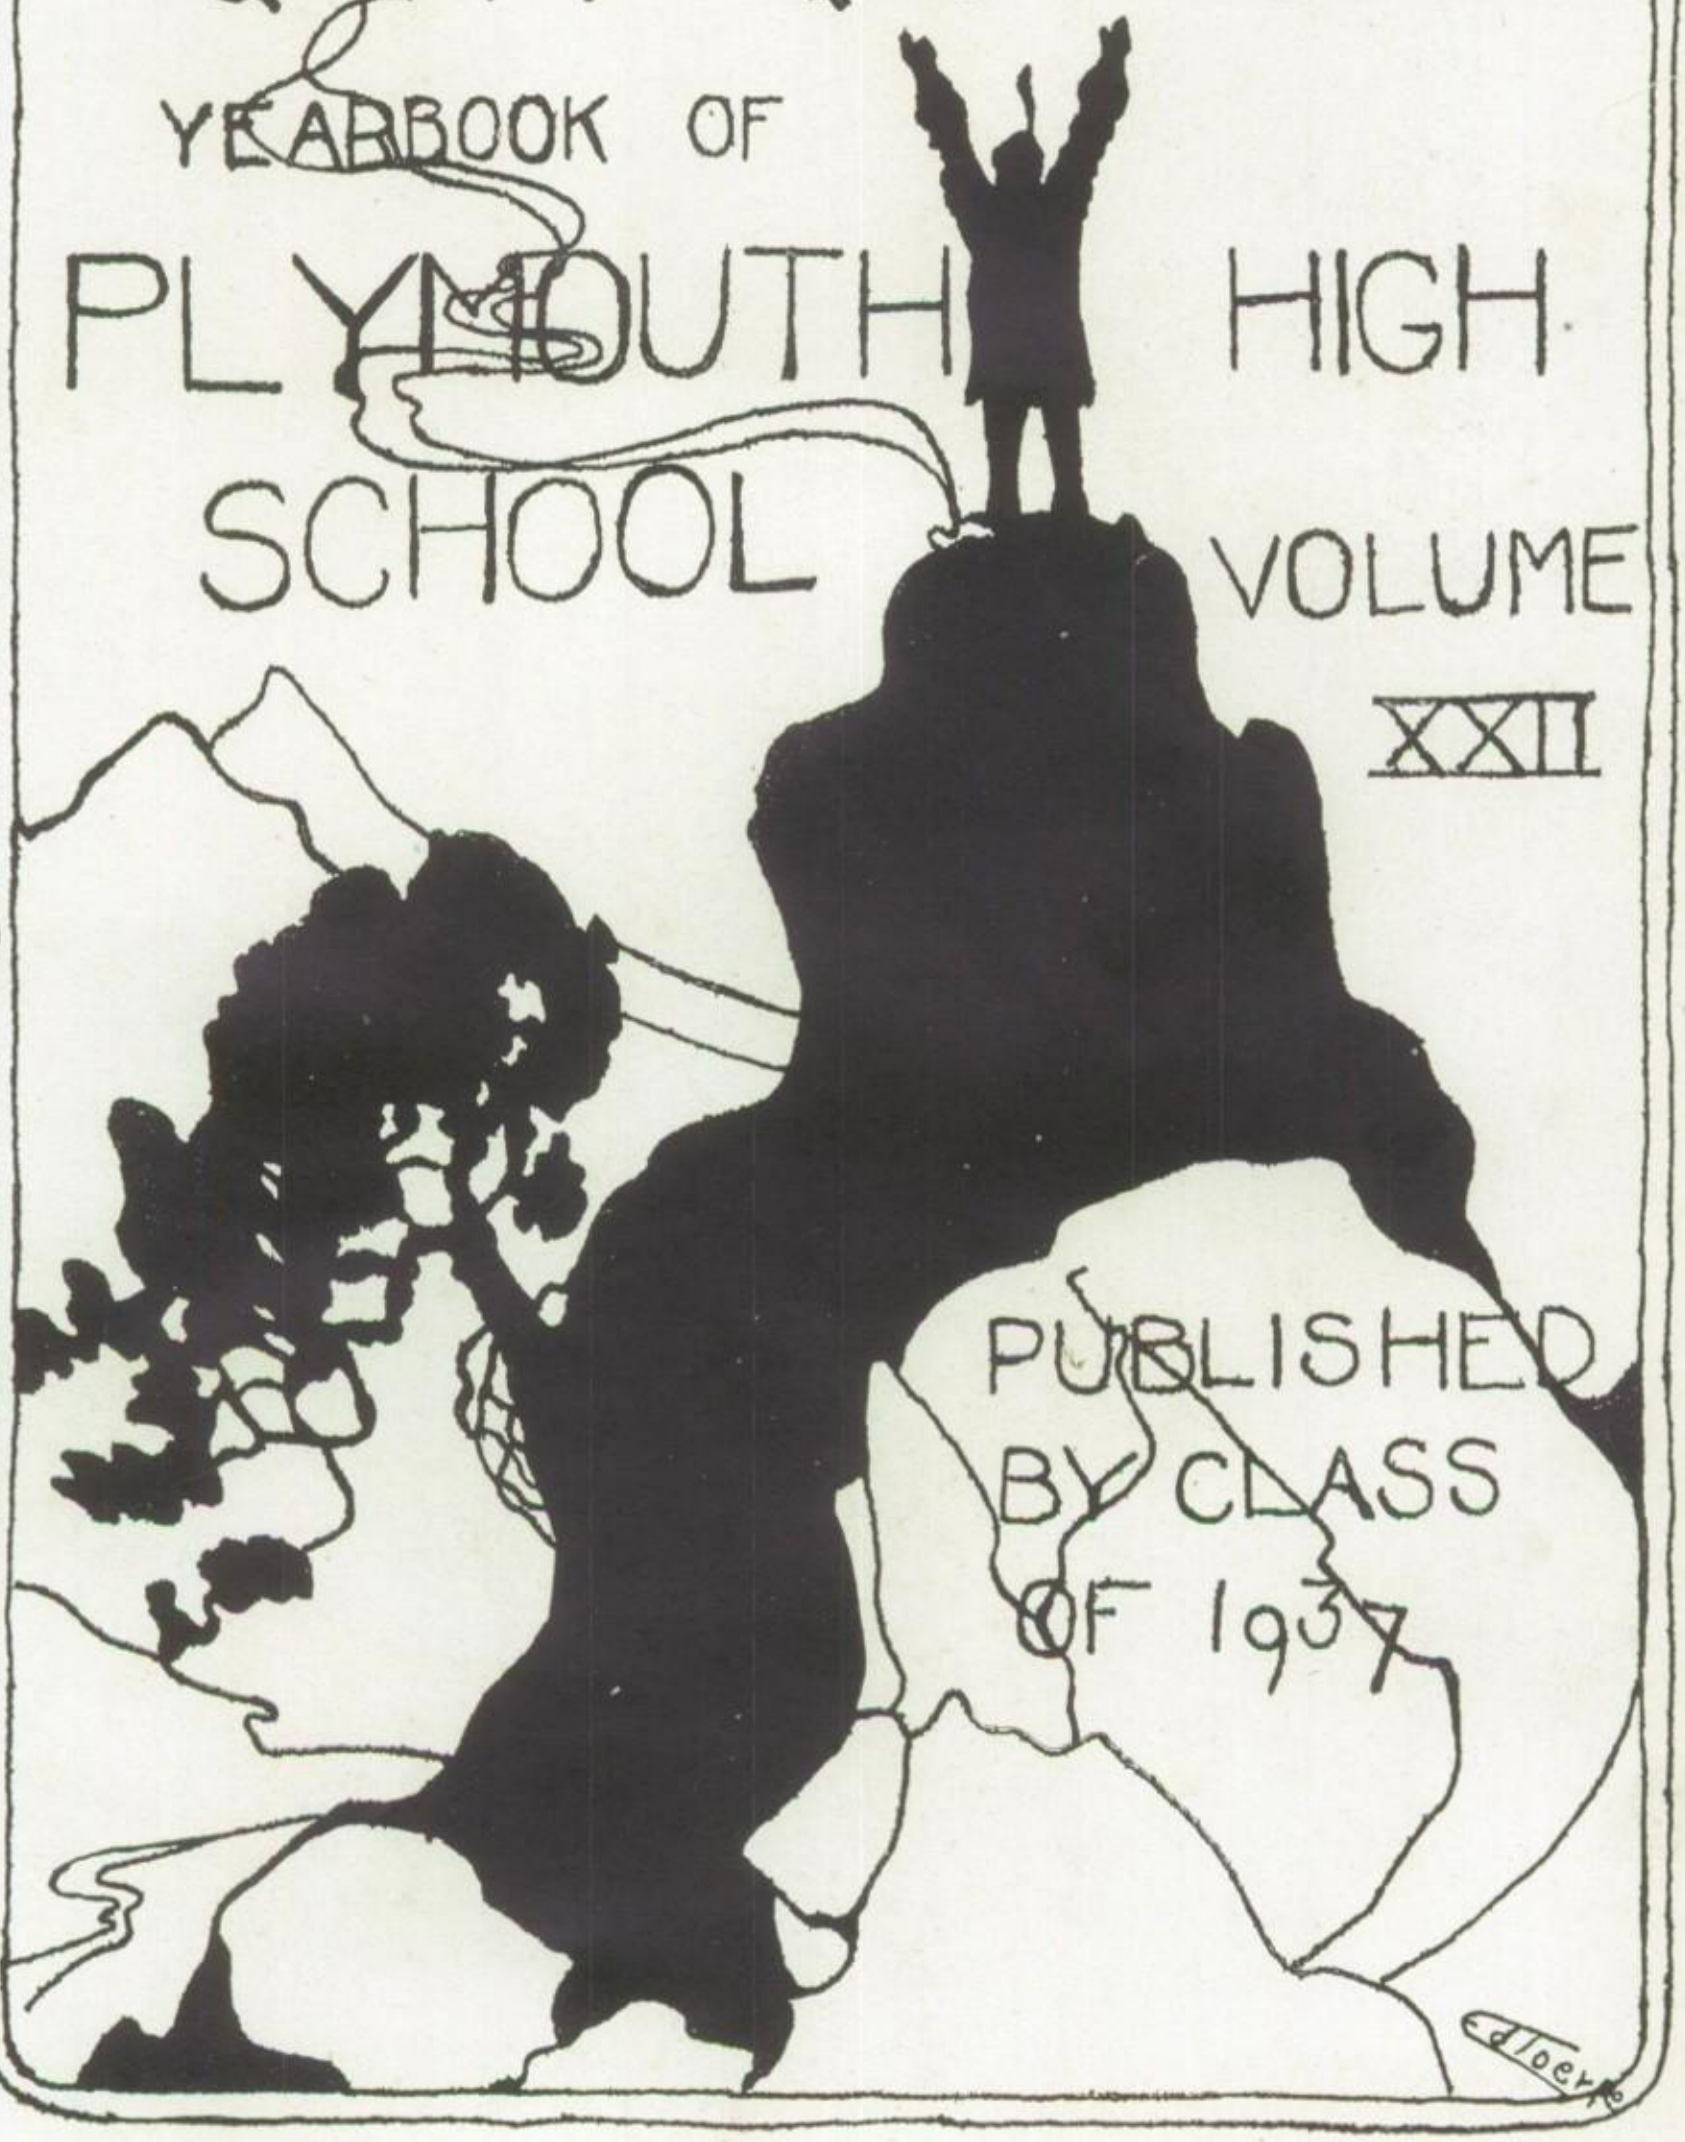
QUIT QUI OC

YEARBOOK OF

PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

VOLUME XXII



PUBLISHED BY CLASS OF 1937

Anita M. Krause

DEDICATION

In sincere appreciation of her loyalty, friendship, counsel, and sympathetic interest in our advancement as a class and as individuals during our years together in Plymouth High School, we dedicate this Twenty-second Edition of the Year-book to our respected friend and teacher, Miss Anita M. Krause.

The Class of 1937.

FOREWORD

Although time flies with the same piercing swiftness of the shooting arrow that the Indian sends forth, still memory tugs at the heart just as the bow tugs at the hunter's arms, and memory stays behind, even though the years keep pace with the arrow, for "the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts".

The carefree, happy hours spent within the confines of Plymouth High School—renewed anticipation and interest marking the awakening of each new day, the never-to-be-forgotten contacts with some more mature minds who unselfishly chose to guide us to maturity through all the bright joys and petty sorrows of our adolescence, the lasting friendships formed in our associations together—surely, these will not fade from our memory.

But, how will these thoughts help us in the days that are to come? The judgment and balance that have come from a life of work and play, the merging of shadows and sunlight, and the combining of the bitter with the sweet will never fail to serve us.

Thus, to impress more vividly on our minds these most pleasant remembrances so they will permeate our lives like the old Indian titles whose "name is on our waters, and you may not wash it out", these thoughts have been recorded.

ANITA M. KRAUSE.

SENIOR CLASS

It is with mingled emotions of gladness and sadness that we, the Senior Class of 1937, will walk down the aisle of our beautiful High School Auditorium for the last time together. We shall be glad because the goal for which we have been striving for four years has finally been realized. We shall be sad because, from then on, we will no longer be able to take part in the many enjoyable High School activities in which we have participated during the last four years; sad, too, because we shall miss our daily contacts with our school friends and teachers.

As we look back and remember we have had the honor and advantage of being the first Freshman Class to enter this new building in 1933, we find that we have, in taking advantage of this opportunity, made of our four years of high school life a splendid and enviable record. We have been capably represented in all branches of school activities: dramatic productions, athletic contests, debate and forensic meets, musical tournaments, and publications. Not only have we shown brilliance in extra-curricular activities, but also in our studies, thus adding a splendid scholastic record to our list of achievements.

For assistance in editing the Quit Qui Oc, we wish to sincerely thank our adviser, Mr. Iverson. Also, we wish to thank Mr. Senty, our faculty, and especially the following class advisers for the profound interest and patience they have taken in our welfare and class activities:

1933-34 ..... Miss Anderson (Mrs. Sohn) and Mr. Draeger
1934-35 ..... Miss Haase (Mrs. Jambeck) and Mr. Farwell
1935-36 ..... Miss Krause and Mr. Zimmerman
1936-37 ..... Miss Fritz, Mr. Williams, and Mr. Iverson

CLASS PROPHECY

Date: April 5, 1942.

The Alumni Association of Plymouth High School, headed by Mr. Delbert Skelton, recently compiled a report of the activities of the class members of the various graduating classes of Plymouth High. Appointed as the one to account for the class of '37, I have the following information to be placed on file:

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS: June and Jeanette Raeder are the two great woman chemists of the hour. Together, with their devoted assistants, Norman Deicher and David Wittkopp, they have worked out a formula for a hair tonic that guarantees to grow hair on a bald person's head within two weeks. The chemists worked their experiment on Gordon Krueger who tore all the hair out of his head while pacing the floor nights with his six-months old son, Gordon, Jr. Mr. Krueger's wife of two years was formerly the illustrious Jean Lorge. . . . The expression, "See you in the Funnies", has been fulfilled by that great cartoonist, Edward Toerpe. Edward, with special permission of Norbert Heise and Marvin Lehmann (the great G-men of dear old Uncle Sam), gives humorous accounts of their exploits in a comic strip for which youngsters clamor. . . . Mildred Never and Harold Brautgam compose a dance team noted for graceful routines. They draw great crowds to the modernized Vogue Cafe. The cafe is owned by Lando Schwaller, and managed by his wife, the former Cecelia Duquette. A featured blues-singer of the club is Dorothy Mae Holzman. . . .

HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA: The present heavyweight champion of the world, "Dynamite" Joe Schultz, has been signed up by Paramount to star in a picture with Miss Jane La Rose, entitled "I Love Me". When interviewed by that brilliant news reporter, Robert Suhrke, Joe stated that he was only going into pictures to please his "public". . . . That very handsome young man whose pictures you see in all the necktie ads is none other than Edgar Kallenberg. He was scouted by Warner Brothers' agent, Roland Thomas, to play in the movies. In Hollywood his "good looks" will be displayed to a better advantage. Marion Andrews, Edgar's fiancee, will accompany him to keep him out of mischief! . . .

BERLIN, GERMANY: The world's greatest thinker, Palmer Boeger, with the help of his assistant, Harold Limberg, is now living in this city to carry on the work of Einstein. They have just made a tour of Germany, to find out in what kind of a country they are residing. Palmer's wife, Ruth Schachtschneider, and Harold's wife, Doris Miller, will join them shortly. . . . Francis Schellpfeffer has the best butcher shop in Berlin. Meat is meat anywhere, but customers flock to his store. Perhaps his burly assistant, Burleigh Ramminger, is the attraction for all the pretty housewives. . . .

SOMEWHERE IN THE JUNGLES, AFRICA: The two missionaries, Lucile Dennerlein and Lola Pratt, have gone on an expedition into the heart of an African jungle. Their main object is to convert as many cannibals as possible. Nothing can discourage these two gallant individuals. . . .

PLYMOUTH, WISCONSIN: The staff of the new Plymouth Hospital is headed by Dr. Clyde Kaiser. Four other very successful internes—Harold Hueppchen, Willard Juers, Wallace Kleinhans, and Roy Warner—complete the male portion of the staff.

The pretty but capable nurses are headed by Jean Broker. The assistant nurses are Gladys Guhl, Margaret Graef, Joyce Brown, and June Hug. Marion Brown is head dietitian and has Dorothy Kirst as a helper. Mr. Jack Corbett makes frequent trips to the hospital—he isn't exactly in the worst of health either—so the attraction must be the head nurse. . . . The Schmidt and Schmidt Circus, owned by Harold and John Schmidt, is spending the winter months in Plymouth, Wisconsin. The peanut vender, Melvin Lau, has a hard time keeping his lovely snake-charmer wife, Madame Florence (formerly Florence LaBudde), informed as to where he spends so many late hours. Madame Florence fears that the devastating Henrietta Renk, bare-back rider, is the object of her husband's undivided attention. . . . The Plymouth City Council, headed by Mayor Jerome Wegner, has voted upon a new school for Senior High School students—because of the cramped conditions in the Junior-Senior High School. When Superintendent of Schools, Walter Fiedler, was informed of this act by his pretty private secretary, Hilda Schachtschneider, he fainted. . . . Paul Block, a multi-millionaire, who now lives in New York, recently made an overwhelming display of generosity. He donated a check of $1,000,000 to the musical organization of Plymouth High School. The chorus director, Bob Suckow, and band director, Alfred Ziegler, sent a vote of thanks to this kind benefactor. . . . Harold Hofschild owns one of the largest dairy farms in the state. His wife, the former Bernice Butler, makes a charming little milkmaid. Eldon Davis and his wife, formerly Helen Iserloth, are contemplating buying an interest in this successful farm. The four could live together just like one big happy family.

LONDON, ENGLAND: Sherlock Holmes II they call this shy detective, Edward Leyhe. Right now he is spending quite a bit of his time riding around with Doris Blanke in her new Dusenberg. Rumors are circulating to the effect that this is not a professional interest! . . . Otto Feitusch is quite an artist. When he isn't painting pictures of his beautiful model, Arlyle Hicken, he is trying to paint pictures of those fantastic pink elephants and lavendar alligators that accompany these splitting headaches on the morning after the night before. Melvin Hinz acts as Otto's valet. Among his duties is putting Otto to bed after those frequent nightly excursions. . . .

NEW YORK, NEW YORK: The Anhalt Amateur Hour, headed by Gertrude Anhalt, is doing commendable work in giving many talented persons a chance. Among some of the best amateurs are John Austin, who imitates barn yard animals; Esther Stein, a one-woman band; Donald Bauer and his jug band, composed of John Devine, Kenneth Brossel, and Francis Calvey—their theme song is "Little Brown Jug"; and Ray Meerstein who has revived an old song hit, "Ten Little Bottles". . . . Perhaps the most glamorous event of the year was the debut of Miss Hilda Borkenhagen in the Metropolitan Opera House. She sang the soprano role in an opera composed by Herbert Steinhardt. The tenor lead was taken by Jack Peebles. Supporting roles were sung by Charles Franey, Alfred Elsner, and Jeanice Unger. . . . Appearing at the first gala night was Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stolper. Mr. Stolper is the well-known Pixie Pickle King; his wife is the former Alvina Dickman. Other prominent personages present were Gerald Meyer, radio crooner, and his fiancee, Bernice Hicken, who has just finished a naughty novel called "Whoops M'Dear". . . . Mark Hopp and Alois Andre are two very funny radio comedians. They call themselves "Pete" and "Repeat". Their decision to follow this profession was the result of their successful capers in their High School history class. . . . Roland Jens tickles the kiddies of the radio audience with his Bunny Bedtime Stories. His program is sponsored by Millers' Bunny Maple Syrup Co., owned and operated by Deward and Edward Miller. . . .

OSHKOSH, WISCONSIN: The proprietress of Dot's Frock Shop, Dorathea Arsenault, will soon give an annual summer style show. Such lovely mannequins as Lucille Schroeder, Severa Blanke, Anna Marie Schockmel, and Marcella Truttschel model the exquisite gowns. . . . The three social workers, Margaret Hodge, Marian Mohs, and Evelyn Roepke, have recently done wonderful work in the slum district. Margaret Hodge saved the soul of Lawrence Mullen, and, so that he shall not be able to go further astray, she has married him. . . .

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA: The famous woman lawyer, Betty Scowden, is, at present, pleading the case of Henry Ebenreiter who, it seems, tried to drive 100 miles an hour in a city where the speed limit is 35. The court reporter, Mathilda Heincke, who writes shorthand 250 words a minute, is kept busy recording Henry's many alibis. . . . Mardell Ladewig is the leader of the "Charmsters", an orchestra composed entirely of girls. The vocalist for the orchestra is Eunice Lange. The sobbing saxophones are played by Germaine Reilly and Esther Zacho; the booming bass, by Gladys Oosterhous; the terrific trombone, by Nevina Wittkopp; the whining violins, by Evelyn Cain and Lucille Boeckmann; the crazy cornets, by Ruby Grebe and Ruth Baumann; the crooning clarinet, by Grace Gahagan; the dusky drums, by Ruth Schwaab; and the plunky piano, by Hildegard Rudolph. They won their fame after an appearance on the Anhalt Amateur Hour. . . . Warren Eigenberger is working in a Chinese laundry. His only trouble is that he cannot speak Chinese. Last week because of jumbling his employer's orders, he sent some very feminine looking apparel to Roy Zwerg. Now Warren has Russell Clark, who speaks Chinese eloquently, act as an interpreter, thus eliminating the frequent errors.

RENO, NEVADA: The notorious Ethyle Strobel, or I should say Ethyle Torke Wittkopp Strobel, has just been granted a divorce from her latest husband, Warren Wittkopp, famed typical American playboy. Her first husband, Elmer Torke, is disappointed in what he thought was such a sweet, winsome thing. Ethyle charged both husbands with mental cruelty. . . . Thus, reads the resume of the activities of the Class of '37. Its education, as you readily see, was not without results.

Gertrude Mayer.

Dear Ruth:
I will always remember you as the blond Junior girl that went with Ethel Swaccus and kept pressing me for answers I couldn't

Don't get too trouble with the boys.
Jean Gisterblum.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1937, of the High School, City of Plymouth, County of Sheboygan, State of Wisconsin, publish this, our last will and testament, in which we bequeath all our worldly goods as follows:

ARTICLE I

TO THE FACULTY

To Mr. Senty we bequeath our unlimited gratitude for the aid he has given us in our trials and struggles to prepare ourselves for future years.

To Mr. Iverson we leave our many thanks for the wonderful help he has given us in preparing the annual.

To Miss Fritz we will several tons of her Home Economic girls' cake. (This should make at least three or four cakes.)

To Mr. Williams we bequeath new typewriters for the typing room, so he can't send Miss Carlyle such old ones to use.

To Miss Berge we will our sympathy for her efforts to teach English to the Junior Hi students.

To Miss Carlyle we leave a bicycle built for two for reasons obvious every noon. (No crowding, please.)

To Mr. Draeger we bequeath our formula for plastic iron wood that will not rust.

To Mr. Glazer we leave one free permanent wave.

To Mr. Helwig we will a shoulder pad set to ease the burden of our team's losses (if any).

To Miss Hoppe we bequeath a white plaid skirt with no pleats.

To Miss Huff we leave all of next year's test papers, so she can enjoy correcting them.

To Miss Isserstedt we will an electric hair puller with a photo-electric eye to determine who is causing the disturbance.

To Miss Jentges we bequeath a pair of ice skates with which ankle supports are not included.

To Miss Krause we leave this annual if she can find a use for it.

To Mr. Laufenberg we will a boy to replace Walter Fiedler.

To Miss Rehfeld we bequeath a rubber baton that can also be used as a switch.

To Miss Scott we will a pair of dark glasses to cover up that "woe be on to you" look she gives the students.

To Miss Shipman we leave a round triangle for squaring the corners of a circle.

To Miss Snyder we bequeath a soap box securely fastened to a street corner for political reasons.

To Mr. Splitgerber we bequeath a robot to take care of the children when "Mr. and Mrs." desire to go out.

To Mr. Stahl we leave our place at the daily paper, so he gets it first.

To Miss Stein we will a make-up kit, so she can put dark lines in her forehead to distinguish herself from the students.

To Miss Wernecke we bequeath something to sell when she goes Christmas caroling next year.

To Mr. Zimmerman we will a glass house so that the next time he has a fire we can get a better view of what is going on inside.

To Miss Schlenter we leave five or six pillows for her to sit on while driving her car; we all want to see who's driving it.

To Miss Austin we will a 1938 Ford coupe.

To Mr. Hein, Mrs. Troeger, Mr. Elmer, and Mr. Schlenter we bequeath our undying gratitude for making the school so pleasant to live in. We also want to apologize for orange peels, paper, gum, etc.

ARTICLE II

TO THE CLASSES

To the Juniors we bequeath the speaking ability of our class.

To the Sophomores we leave a good day's work, so they can enjoy not doing it.

To the Freshmen we will our dignified manner.

ARTICLE III

The various students bequeath the following:

Palmer Boeger bequeaths his talkativeness to Albert Reiss.

Francis Calvey bequeaths his unfailing promptness in the morning to Dorthe Rieck.

John Devine bequeaths Gladys to a new boy friend next year.

Robert Suhrke bequeaths his wings to Edward Manthei.

Elmer Torke bequeaths his track managership to anyone who cares to run for it.

"Chuck" Franey bequeaths his basketball ability to John Lilge.

June Hug bequeaths her next winter's ankle socks to Norma Buuck.

Edward Leyhe bequeaths his business ability to John Rose.

Gordon Krueger bequeaths his romantic tendencies to George Standish.

Jane Rose bequeaths her "hulla hulla" dance to Mary Jane Dick.

Ruth Schachtschneider bequeaths part of her name to Dave Sims.

Joe Schultz bequeaths his V-8 to Miss Estelle Jentges.

Robert Suckow bequeaths his dancing ability to "Jerry" Minch.

Marcella Truttschel bequeaths her power to scream when frightened to Lillian Dickman, if she ever does get frightened.

"Wally" Fiedler bequeaths his power to evade the issue to next year's debaters.

Otto Feitusch bequeaths his "that certain thing" to Walter Scholz.

We do hereby constitute and appoint Mr. Iverson the executor of this our last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hand and seal, this 7th day of April, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven (1937).

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said class of 1937, as and for its last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at its request, in its presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witness to said instrument.

THE STUDENT SENATE

In 1933 when the Senate was formed, it was hoped that this organization would endure for years to come. Its real aim was to promote and supervise student activities, to assist in solving student problems, and to foster Plymouth High School spirit. Now, after four years, it has not only done the things it set out to do, but has also been established as one of the best and most complete student councils in the State of Wisconsin.

Since the organizaion the Senate has been instrumental in bringing entertainment to the students. Among the groups to entertain this year were Samuel Grathwell, a well-known orator and speaker; Al Priddy, the man from the circus; Philip Foxwell, the magician; the Marionettes; the X. Brandt concert company, who presented a program of classical and semi-classical music; and the Abraham Lincoln Players; besides which several other very interesting and educational programs were presented.

One of the important undertakings of the Senate for the past several years has been the fostering and maintaining of school spirit. This was continued to a great extent by the introduction of the Activity Ticket. A reasonable price was set, and the ticket was prepared to include athletic contests, forensic activities, assembly programs, dramatic productions, the Hi-Lights, and one copy of the Quit Qui Oc.

The Orange Guide Book, a handbook which gives the rules and regulations of the High School, has been edited by the Senate for several years. This book has proved valuable to the students, faculty members, and persons visiting the building.

This year both a school carnival and bi-weekly song period have been sponsored by the Senate. Each event met with great success. It is, therefore, needless to say that this year's Senate has tried to serve a worthy purpose, uphold its aims, and establish itself as the ruling body of the High School. NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Plymouth Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools, organized by Miss Anita Krause in the spring of 1936, serves a fourfold purpose: 1. to create an enthusiasm for scholarship; 2. to stimulate a desire to render service; 3. to promote leadership; and 4. to encourage the development of character in the pupils of Plymouth High School.

Members of the society, elected annually by the faculty, must be in the upper third of their class and must have spent at least one year in the Plymouth High School. Not more than fifteen per cent of any Senior Class may be elected, nor more than five per cent of the Junior Class, so it is indeed an honor to be elected a member of this organization, especially as a Junior. Membership is based on the four qualities mentioned above.

During the past year two projects were carried out very successfully by the Plymouth Chapter. A Forum Club was organized, in which students exchanged ideas about travel, current books, friendship, and other topics of interest. A member of the National Honor Society acted as chairman of such meetings, while faculty members and interested students increased their knowledge on the topics under discussion. The highly successful Student Corridor Monitor System was also established by the society.

Last June the following students, now proudly displaying gold membership pins, were elected charter members of the society: Ruth Baum, Harriet Heincke, Lois Hubin, Janet Leifer, Harold Reinecke, Geraldine Sanders, Jean Schiereck, Verona Schmidt, and Lois Senty, graduate members; and Russell Clark, Walter Fiedler, Gordon Krueger, Burleigh Ramminger, Robert Suckow, and Robert Suhrke, active members.

This May formal initiation of the following took place in the Plymouth High School Auditorium: Dorathea Arsenault, Lucile Dennerlein, Gertrude Mayer, Edward Miller, Ruth Schachtschneider, Jeanice Unger, and Warren Wittkopp, Seniors; and Everett Brockman, Rosemary Corbett, Elwood Hintz, Allen Limberg, John Lorge, and Doris Siebert, Juniors.

STUDENT CORRIDOR MONITOR SYSTEM

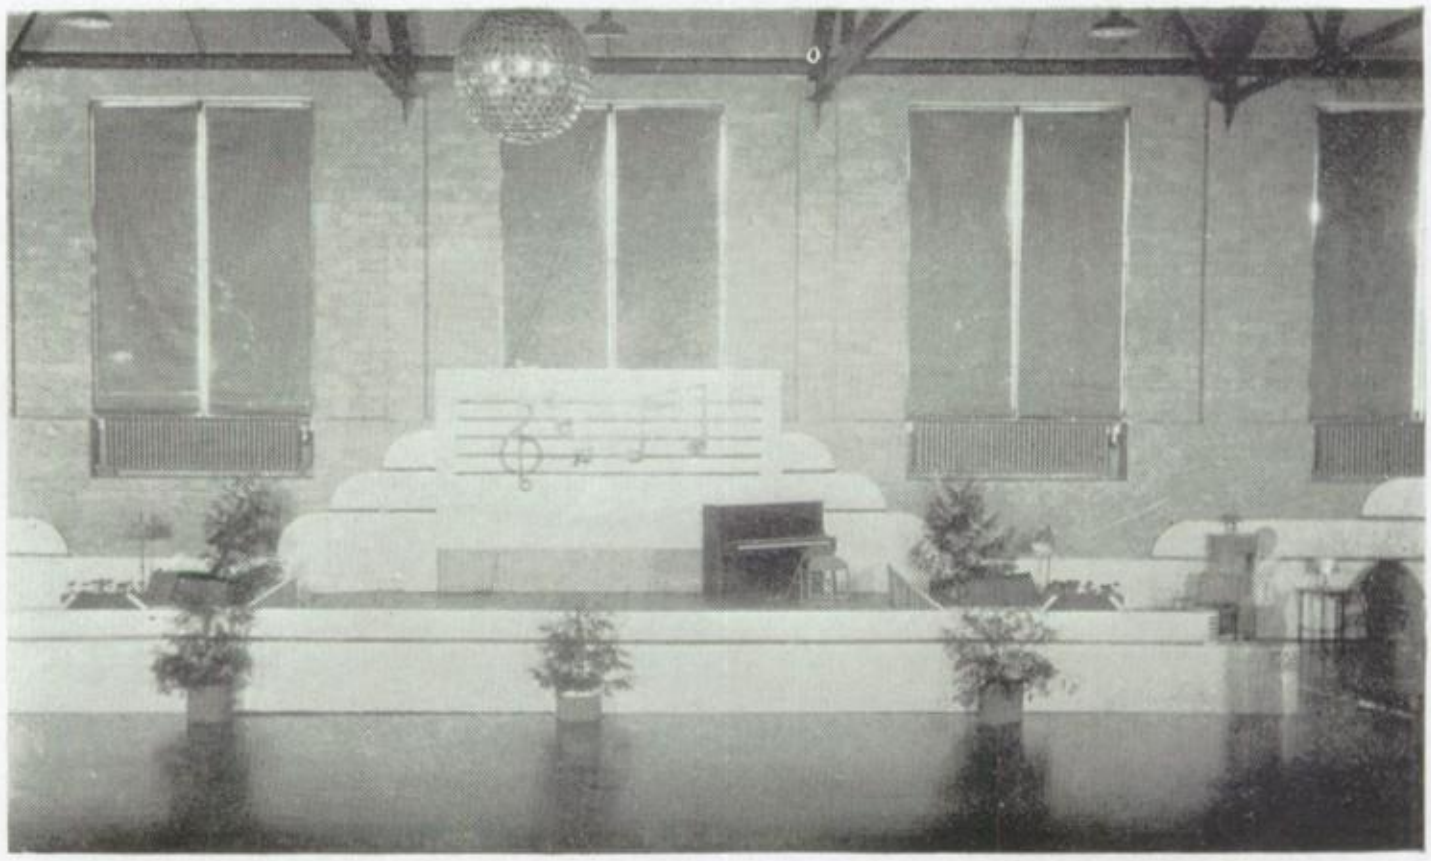
The Student Corridor Monitor System, organized by the Plymouth Chapter of the National Honor Society, provides students, chosen by the members of the Honor Society, to supervise the corridors during class periods, and before and after school. The Monitors are distinguished by an orange arm band with a black P and star.

During all class periods a student is stationed directly outside the library to supervise the corridors during that time, reporting the name and home room of any pupil in the halls without a locker pass or permit slip. The prime purpose of these Monitors is to keep the students from making unnecessary trips to their lockers.

The Monitors who are on duty before and after school have assumed the duties of the teachers, and have had the complete cooperation of the students whom they have found necessary to reprimand because of congregations around lockers and disobedience of certain corridor traffic laws, such as pushing or running.

As a result of the work of the Monitors during the regular home-room period, the corridors have been exceptionally free of students during that time.

The following Monitors were on duty the first six weeks period: Robert Suckow, Gertrude Mayer, Jean Lorge, Edward Toerpe, Clyde Kaiser, Russell Clark, Gordon Krueger, Jeanice Unger, Walter Fiedler, Burleigh Ramminger, John Schmidt, Robert Suhrke, Helen Iserloth, Elmer Torke, Harold Limberg, Alfred Elsner, Hilda Schachtschneider, and Dorathea Arsenault. During the second six weeks Palmer Boeger, Norbert Heise, Paul Block, Jean Broker, Otto Feitush, Russell Clark, Alvina Dickman, Lola Pratt, Jerome Wegner, Carl Stolper, Edward Miller, Marvin Lehmann, Burleigh Ramminger, Francis Schellpfeffer, Lucile Dennerlein, Anna Marie Schockmel, Gordon Krueger, Ruth Schachtschneider, Doris Blanke, and Warren Wittkopp officiated.



JUNIOR PROM 1936

Modernism was the keynote of the Junior Prom held May 23, 1936 in the Plymouth High School gymnasium. One's first view of the gymnasium revealed the impressive orchestra stand with a huge musical staff in the background, while further study disclosed potted red geraniums, resting on the modernistic black and silver barriers which bordered the lounges. The colored red lights in one end of these barriers, plus the dancing reflections cast by the crystal ball, added an atmosphere of gaiety and enchantment to the bright scene, while cedar trees, appropriately placed, increased its beauty.

As Bob Malcolm's Orchestra swung into "Anchors Aweigh", Prom Chairman, Burleigh Ramminger, and his Queen, Arlyle Hicken, led the feature of the evening, the Grand March, in which only Plymouth High School students participated. The success of the Prom was due largely to the effort put forth by committee members and faculty advisers, besides the co-operation of the entire class. Committee chairmen were as follows: Walter Fiedler, decorating; Robert Suckow and Warren Wittkopp, finance; Gordon Krueger, orchestra; Elmer Torke, advertising; and Helen Iserloth, refreshments.

Faculty advisers were Miss Anita Krause and Mr. Vernon Zimmerman.

THE ORCHESTRA

Under Mr. Draeger's capable leadership, the Orchestra has proved a valuable asset to the social functions of the school. It has played at all the productions given in the auditorium by the Dramatic Club and at numerous other places.

At the State Music Contest in Madison in 1936 a rating of second place was given to the Orchestra.

THE BAND

The advancement made by the High School Band has been due largely to the efforts of its director, David Glazer. It is now one of the finest in its class in the state. This year, with the aid of the Music Mothers, the Band has been working for the new uniforms, which were worn for the first time at the District Music Festival which was held in Oshkosh on May 14.

THE MUSIC HALL

At the W. S. M. A. District Festival held at Plymouth, May 2 of last year, the Band Contest was probably the featured event. The Plymouth Band placed in the first division in class C in both the concert band and marching contests.

Plymouth was host to a group of singers and instrumentalists from Brillion, Campbellsport, Chilton, Denmark, Elkhart Lake, Hilbert, Kaukauna, Kewaskum, Manitowoc, Menasha, New Holstein, Sheboygan, Two Rivers, and Valders. The bands were grouped in classes A, B, C, and D, according to experience.

The Orchestra also placed in the first division in class C. Many solos, ensembles, along with the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, placed in the first division, giving them a chance at state competition.

* * *

The Eastern Wisconsin League Music Festival was held at Chilton, May 8, 1936. Students could participate as individuals, in solo or ensemble events, according to classes A, B, C, and D. In this way there could be more than one person getting honor with the same rating. Thus, the difficulty of choosing a single winner was eliminated.

Another feature of the Festival was the combining of all vocal and instrumental participants in large massed orchestra, chorus, and band groups. During the afternoon there was a parade in which the Plymouth and Chilton Bands participated.

* * *

On May 28 and 29, 1936, those placing in the first division in the State District Festival competed in the Wisconsin School Music Festival at Madison.

The Band placed in the first division in class C in the concert band and in the second division in both the marching and sight reading contests.

The Orchestra placed in the third division in class C. The Girls' Glee Club placed in the second division in class B, while the Boys' Glee Club placed in the first division in class B. Many vocal solos and ensembles also won in the first division in the state contest at Madison.

* * *

The new uniforms, purchased through the efforts of the Plymouth Music Mothers Association, were worn for the first time at an afternoon musicale at the Plymouth High School Auditorium on Sunday, May 16, 1937. The Band ended the season by entering the Eastern Wisconsin League Festival, May 7, and the State District Festival on May 8.

Standing — J. Saemann, C. Stolper, E. Lehye, R. Suhrke, Mr. Laufenberg, W. Wittkopp, J. Broker, R. Suckow, J. Hug, H. Saemann, A. Reiss, C. Schmid.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The National Forensic League is an honorary organization with 463 chapters in the leading schools of the United States. The purpose of this organization, as stated in the constitution, is to promote the interests of interscholasic debate, oratory, and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of fellowship and by conferring a suitable reward upon deserving candidates. The reward consists of membership in a national organization and the privilege of wearing its distinctive key—always the mark of an honor student.

To become a member of the N. F. L. a student must earn 15 points of credit in forensic work. He must rank in the upper two thirds of his class scholastically. He must have leadership and good character. He must be elected by a three-fourths vote of the members.

In order to provide constant incentive for further forensic effort even after membership has been attained, advanced degrees are conferred upon members for special attainments. The degrees and the requirements for each are as follows: Degree of Merit, 15 points; Degree of Honor, 30 points; Degree of Excellence, 60 points; Degree of Distinction, 100 points. Advanced degrees keep active the interest of the members by offering them new honors. The members of the Plymouth Chapter of the N. F. L. and their degrees are as follows: Degree of Distinction, Walter Fiedler, Robert Suhrke; Degree of Excellence, Robert Suckow, Warren Schmoll, Harold Steinke; Degree of Honor, Doris Siebert, Carl Stolper, Edward Leyhe; Degree of Merit, Gertrude Mayer, Jane Hug, Warren Wittkopp, Albert Reiss, Warren Stolper, Henry Saemann, and Jesse Saemann.

The coach, Mr. Laufenberg, has the Degree of Excellence.

Standing — W. Wittkopp, W. Fiedler, Mr. Laufenberg.
Seated — R. Suhrke, C. Stolper, E. Leyhe, H. Steinke, W. Schmoll, C. Schmidt.

DEBATE

Plymouth debaters enjoyed a very successful season after competing in the contests of two leagues.

More than forty students were out for debate and from these were selected as the Affirmative, Edward Leyhe, Carl Stolper, and Robert Suhrke, with Warren Wittkopp as alternate; the Negative team selected included Warren Schmoll, Harold Steinke, and Walter Fiedler, with Calvin Schmid as alternate.

In the Wisconsin Forensic League the first round of contests, in which Plymouth was undefeated, was with Port Washington High, Washington High, Milwaukee, and Kenosha High. Plymouth was eliminated by Marshall in the subsectional rounds, after the debaters had defeated Horicon.

In the National Forensic Tournament at Marquette University, Milwaukee, the teams also had a good record, ranking in sixth place, tied with three wins and three losses.

The teams made a very creditable showing for the season. A great deal of credit should be given to the debate coach, Mr. R. P. Laufenberg, who worked untiringly with the teams throughout the season.

Standing — R. Clark, J. Unger, Miss Carlyle.

Seated on the outside — L. Matzdorf, C. Standish, R. Miller, K. Schierstedt, A. Ziegler, H. Schachtschneider, L. Pratt, D. Arsenault, R. Suckow, A. Reiss, D. Sims.

Seated in the inside — B. Torke, L. Burke, H. Stoll, E. Torke, P. Swart, D. Siebert, D. Vick.

PRESS CLUB

The Plymouth Hi-Lights, official newspaper of the High School, was published by 25 members representing all classes in school.

The Hi-Lights was started primarily as a Junior project in school. The paper is published regularly every other Wednesday, and for the past two years it has been included in the activity ticket.

Instructions in journalism are given by the adviser, Miss Carlyle, at the regular meetings of the Press Club.

Students may achieve a place on the staff by successfully completing three try-out assignments, showing an interest in writing, and maintaining a satisfactory scholastic eligibility. Reporters doing exceptional work this year were awarded pins.

The staff was headed this year by Jeanice Unger as editor and Russell Clark as business manager.

HI-Y CLUB

The Plymouth Chapter of the Hi-Y Club was organized in 1934, under the supervision of Mr. Schweitzer, adviser, and it prospered well under his direction during 1934 and 1935. This year Mr. Williams took over the adviserships, and under his direction the Club has enjoyed another successful year.

The Hi-Y was formed for the purpose of possessing, maintaining, and creating throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

Meetings are held every other Monday evening, the first hour being devoted to the discussion of topics of interest and the second, to recreation in the gymnasium.

FUTURE FARMERS

The Plymouth Chapter of the Future Farmers of America was organized in 1923 for farm boys enrolled in the Smith-Hughes agricultural departments, which holds state and national contests each year for teams and individuals.

Judging teams were sent to state and national contests, and three cattle judging teams were sent to the Junior Cow Classification Contest at Appleton.

This year a Herd Improvement Association was organized, as a chapter of the State Association. The thirty-one members keep records of over two hundred and fifty cows.

Individuals who merited honors this year were the following: Laverne DeMunck, tenth place in judging dairy products in the state contest; Clarke Melvin, fourth, and Wilburt Behrens, sixth place in judging livestock at the state contest; Clinton Brott, second in the district oratorical contest; and Albert Schulz and Harvey Meyer, won fourth in judging dairy cattle at Appleton. Melvin Raeder and Wallace Kleinhans received Wisconsin Farmer Keys and free trips to the Conservation Camp at the Wisconsin Dells, for doing outstanding work in forestry in the county.

JUDGING TEAMS

The judging teams, sent to Madison and Appleton this year for livestock, dairy products, and poultry, were very successful.

The livestock team, composed of Wilbur Bohnhoff, Clarke Melvin, and Wilburt Behrens, won first place at the state contest in competition with one hundred and thirty-seven teams. This victory gave them the right to represent Wisconsin at the national contest at Kansas City. The team placed second in the judging of Guernsey cattle and eleventh in all classes of dairy cattle.

Wilburt Behrens was adjudged the best student judge of Guernsey cattle in the United States. The team appeared before the Kiwanis Club and the assembly.

The dairy products team, composed of Albert Schulz, Laverne DeMunck, and Theodore Miller, won fourth place at the state contest in competition with thirty teams.

Members on the poultry team were Delbert Skelton, Clyde Melius, and Deward Miller.

At the Junior Cow Classification Contest the team composed of Albert Schulz, Melvin Lau, and Deward Miller, won third; Harold Reinecke, Harvey Meyer, and Wallace Kleinhans placed fourth; and Wilbur Bohnhoff, Wilburt Behrens, and Kenneth Holbrook won seventh place—with eighty-five teams competing.

Most of the credit for the success in judging is due to Mr. Albert Splitgerber.

FORENSICS

Forensic work was carried on during the past year under the direction of Miss Margaret Scott and Mr. R. P. Laufenberg. Local elimination contests were held, the winners being entered as Plymouth representatives at the Annual National Forensic Tournament which was held at Carroll College, Waukesha. The winning orators also attended an oratory clinic held at Mayville, at which Plymouth took first place.

Local winners in Dramatic Declamatory were Gertrude Mayer, first, and Ruth Ross, second. Humorous Declamatory was won by Doris Siebert, with Dorothy Trimberger winning second. In Oratorical Declamation, Warren Schmoll took first place, with Robert Suckow, second. Extemporaneous speakers were Harold Steinke, first, and Albert Reiss, second. In Original Oratory Plymouth's contestants were Walter Fiedler and Robert Suhrke.

Plymouth placed several contestants in the N. F. L. Tournament. Harold Steinke, Warren Schmoll, and Robert Suckow placed in the semi-finals, while Robert Suhrke took part in the finals.

Plymouth again captured the Forensic Cup in the Eastern Wisconsin League with four seconds and a third. The following took places: Gertrude Mayer, Dramatic Declamatory, second; Dorothy Trimberger, Humorous Declamatory, third; Doris Siebert, Extemporaneous Reading, second; Harold Steinke, Extemporaneous Speaking, second; and Warren Schmoll, Oratory, second. Six declaimers also participated in a declamatory clinic at Marquette University.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club of Plymouth High School has as its objects to serve the student body, to make the library a desirable place in which to study, and to maintain it in an orderly fashion.

The student librarians, who were given their instructions at the Club meetings, assist in aiding students to find reference books, checking out books, preparing library displays, and keeping the library shelves assigned to them in good order. Two librarians are at the desk each period.

The Library Club held its regular monthly meetings on the last Thursday of the month. Major projects undertaken by the Club were various library displays, a puppet show, and reference assistance in the juvenile section of the Public Library.

The limited membership of the club admitted the following: D. Kirst, D. Zager, J. Broker, H. Renk, J. Unger, P. Ladewig, F. Koehler, M. Truttschel, A. Dickman, D. Holzman, L. Boeckmann, J. Kassebaum, G. Oosterhous, N. Wittkopp, L. Matzdorf, R. Osius, V. Donath, G. Guhl, L. Pratt.

Officers are:

GERMAN CLUB

"Der deutsche Verein", organized this year by the members of the German classes and students speaking German and interested in it, is under the direction of Miss Margaret Wernecke.

Meetings at which Germany and the lives of the German people were discussed, were held every other Tuesday; sometimes folk songs were sung, or outside speakers presented their views on related topics.

The Club took a part in the Christmas program and also held a caroling party just before Christmas. It closed the term with a party at which old-fashioned German dancing was featured.

A constitution, written in German by John Schmidt, was adopted.

OFFICERS

LATIN CLUB

Under the capable direction of Miss Margaret Wernecke the "Roman Forum" was organized this year.

Regular meetings were held every other Thursday, at which half of the allotted time was spent in transacting business, and the remainder was filled with entertainment provided by appointed committees.

The club participated in the all-school carnival held November 14. "Fori Tempora", a newspaper in the form of a scroll, was compiled by the Club, edited by Ruth Schachtschneider, who was assisted by Jeanice Unger, with Albert Reiss as business manager.

A constitution, written by Renata Habeck, Ruth Schachtschneider, and John Rose, was adopted.

The Club closed with a Roman banquet, which followed the old Roman customs very closely.

The officers were:

PEP CLUB

What would our school be without a Pep Club? There would be

1. No school spirit.
2. No organized cheerleading.
3. No refreshments at the games
4. No elaborate Home-coming Dance.
5. No money for the new basketball uniforms this year.

Through the efforts of Miss Bernice Hoppe it is now possible for members of the Pep Club who have served in the position as cheerleader for two years to receive a cheerleader's letter. Everett Brockman, Robert Suckow, and Lorraine Burke have been awarded letters this year.

Here's hoping for a bigger and better Pep Club for 1938!!!

LETTER CLUB

The Letter Club is an organization for the boys who have won letters in football, basketball, and track. In order to become a member one must have played six quarters in football games, eight quarters in basketball games, or have received a total of five points in the conference district and state track and field meets.

Fifteen boys were initiated into the Letter Club last December, thus making a total of twenty-seven members.

The Letter Club has as its aim more participation in, and better student support of, interscholastic athletics.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Although the 1936 football squad under the new coach, James Stahl and the new assistant, Floyd Helwig, did not come up to expectations, the results of the season were not as gloomy as they appear. This was especially noticeable when Plymouth lost to a far superior Sheboygan team by a mere touchdown in the closing minutes of play.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

The 1936-37 Panthers of Plymouth High School made a fine record this year under the direction of the new coaches, James Stahl and Floyd Helwig.

During the regular season the team won 8, tied 1, and lost 3 conference games. They also won 4 non-conference games to 1 loss. Two of these victories and the loss took place during the class B sectional tournament held this year at Plymouth. Despite the loss of their first game to Port Washington, the last year's champions, the boys came through in great style to win the consolation championship.

The prospects for next year are exceptionally good since only two regulars will be lost through graduation, and a second team which turned in an excellent record of 12 victories and only 2 losses is coming up to add support to the team.

TRACK TEAM, 1936

Coach Farwell's last team at Plymouth made a very creditable showing by bringing home, for the ninth time, the cup and a majority of medals given away at the annual track and field meet of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference held at Kiel, May 12, 1936.

Plymouth made a comparatively good showing at the district meet at Green Bay. As a result they were sent to the state meet held at Milwaukee this year, where they continued the good work displayed in the preceding meets.

Despite the fact that there are only four returning letter-men, track prospects are quite good for the 1937 team. Plymouth is host to the meet this year.

INTRAMURAL ASSOCIATION

The Boys' Intramural Association was again organized this year for the benefit of the boys who do not participate in varsity sports.

The activities in which the boys of the association take part are touch football, basketball, hockey, boxing, wrestling, volley ball, soft ball, and a track and field day.

The boys have use of the gym on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday noons, Friday evenings, and Saturday mornings.

Awards are given to the boys who have earned the most points as determined by the Board of Control.

The Boys' Intramural Association is directed by Coach Stahl.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association was reorganized this year under the excellent supervision of Miss Bernice Hoppe.

A new point system was introduced by which any girl can earn an emblem, letter, or key for having a required number of points. Eighteen hundred points are required for a key, twelve hundred for a letter, and six hundred for an emblem.

The letter is reserved for Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. The key may be obtained only by Seniors. The seventh, eighth, and ninth grades may earn emblems.

Points are given for intramural sports, which are soccer, basketball, volleyball, baseball, and track. Ninety points are given for making the first team in any one sport, forty for the second team, ten for coming out for the sport, and twenty-five for intramural captains.

Points may also be made by individual activities. Two points an hour are given for hiking, roller skating, ice skating, sleigh riding, golf, tennis, archery, and ping-pong. Not more than one-hundred points may be secured in any one activity.

It's our guess that the government got the idea of a CCC by looking at most of our report cards.

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Robert Suhrke speaking our language?
Margaret Hodge as a timid girl?
Jack Peebles running?
Marion Andrews not whispering?
Warren Eigenberger bright in Geometry?
Dorothy Trimberger not chewing gum?
Miss Rehfeld being temperamental?
Lando Schwaller with his lesson?
Harold Hofschild waking up and living?

Donald B. "I want a pencil."
Miss Isserstedt. "Hard or soft?"
Donald B. "Soft. It's for writing up hard facts about history."

Mr. Laufenberg. "Have you done any outside reading?"
Doris B. "No, it's been too cold."

Cecila D. "My, the sky is lovely tonight. It reminds me of a picture."
John D. "How so?"
Cecila D. "It's with an all-star cast."

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM

The Freshman team finished a successful year by winning five of the ten games played. The team seemed to improve toward the close of the season by defeating both Fond du Lac Jr. High and Sheboygan South Side Jr. High which had previously beaten the local boys.

The Eighth grade boys also had an active team this season. They too won five games out of the ten played. The team entered the tournament held at Port Washington.

With the exception of a few special ones, the practice sessions were held after school on Monday.

Both teams were coached by Mr. Vernon Zimmerman.

JUNIOR HIGH ATHLETICS

Under the leadership of Coach Zimmerman the Plymouth Junior High School Football Team had a fairly successful year, winning two out of five games played.

The schedule was as follows:

P. J. H. S.	7	Kiel Freshmen and Sophomores 6
P. J. H. S.	0	Fond du Lac Freshmen 19
P. J. H. S.	0	Sheboygan South Side Jr. High 20
P. J. H. S.	6	Sheboygan High School Frosh 20
P. J. H. S.	20	Port Washington Jr. High 0

The Plymouth Jr. High 1936 Track Team took part in two meets.

At the Eastern Wisconsin Junior High Track Meet which was held at Plymouth, Kiel won with 71 points and Plymouth had a close second with 70 points.

At another meet held in Port Washington, the Ninth Grade Team placed second to Port Washington and the Eighth Grade placed second to Whitefish Bay.

EVERY HOME NEEDS A LAVETTE

How convenient one of these small but useful first floor toilet rooms is in any home—new or old!

Think of the steps it saves the mother with youngsters to care for; the welcome courtesy it affords to guests; the comfort it means in cases of temporary illness or invalidism.

A space as small as 3½′ x 4½′ is enough to accommodate lavatory and closet; compactly designed Kohler fixtures make the most of limited space. Frequently an unused hall-end, the area under a stairway, or a closet may be converted into one of these "biggest little rooms" in the house.

The Kohler Time Payment Plan makes financing easy. Three years to pay. Visit our showroom, or call in your Master Plumber and begin now to enjoy the advantages of a Kohler lavette. Kohler Co., Founded 1873, Kohler, Wis.

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESS

WE extend our heartiest congratulations to the members of the 1937 graduating class of Plymouth High School.

Wherever you go, whatever you may be, we hope you will not forget the pleasant associations of your high school years, the sacrifice of your parents, and the interest which your entire community has in your future welfare and success.

Dear Ruth:

Or rather maybe I should say "Bootsie". Don't forget those good times we had together this last semester. Boy, you sure can tell me lots of news, —— and other nice things. well, don't forget to call me up sometime this summer and I hope that I will be able to see you once in a while. We sure had fun talking about everything — nothing in particular. Or maybe that certain somebody. By the way don't do anything I wouldn't do with L.S. but anyway have a good time. See, why I am running out of material so will close and wish you loads of luck and success to my pal, my friend and what else I can't think of. Best wishes for the future. Sorry I spoiled your look by writing up side down.

Pal
"Bud"
